

OFSTEAD & ASSOCIATES, INC.

Posting for Clinical Researcher/ Educator

Job description

- Serve as a researcher on a multidisciplinary team focused on initiatives related to public health and the quality of medical care
- Manage a variety of research projects for multiple clients
- Gather, review, distill, and translate scientific information and data
- Present research findings to various constituents
- Develop and implement educational programs and materials
- Write for publication in peer-reviewed journals

Qualifications

- Minimum of a Bachelor's degree or equivalent educational credentials required
- 10+ years experience in the healthcare field
- Knowledge of clinical realities and scientific research processes
- Enjoy reading and interpreting scientific literature
- Ability to communicate effectively verbally and in writing
- Pursuit of excellence at work
- Experience training and educating others
- Ability to provide evidence of experience with scientific research and professional education
- Personal commitment to health
- Ability to travel as needed
- Strong skills using Office 2007 (Word, Excel, PowerPoint)
- Self starter and well-organized

Preferred skills

- Data management and statistics
- Experience in infection control or occupational health
- Exposure to public health or health policy

Compensation and position requirements

- Salary and benefits commensurate with experience
- This position requires a minimum of 30 hours per week

To apply: Please send a resume or curriculum vitae, along with a cover letter to Lisa Mattson at lisa@ofsteadinsights.com or by fax to 651-647-6287.